Major Expansion of Emory Conference Center Hotel Now Complete

ATLANTA – The Emory Conference Center Hotel (ECCH) announces the completion of its new addition. The new development was designed and built in anticipation of receiving certification for LEED-Silver (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) by the U.S. Green Building Council.

The new five-story structure connects to the existing building by a bridge and includes 127 new guest rooms, 6,000 square feet of additional meeting space, Wisteria Lanes-a six-lane bowling alley with retro décor that includes a full bar and game room, and a parking garage.

“The new expansion allows us to meet the needs of our larger conference groups, especially those with ties to Emory University, Emory Healthcare and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC),” said Kathy Johnson, general manager, Emory Conference Center Hotel. “ECCH guests will continue to enjoy our close proximity to Atlanta, while relaxing in new and renovated space nestled deep in the woods on Clifton Road.”

The added guest rooms and meeting space will result in ECCH offering a total of 325 guest rooms with six suites and 32,000 square feet of meeting space. The new 6,000 square-foot meeting space consists of a ballroom, boardroom, and a technologically advanced seminar room. Several lushly landscaped outdoor patio areas have been added, including one with a fire pit.

Extensive renovations have been completed for the Indoor Pool, Health Club, Club Room, Dining Room, and Kitchen in the existing building. ECCH will work toward achieving LEED status for the existing building as well.

Opened in 1995, the Emory Conference Center Hotel is a full-service property nestled in 26 acres of forest preserve at the Emory University campus in Atlanta. Inspired by the architectural design of Frank Lloyd Wright, the ECCH is a member of the Green Hotels Association and is one of two properties in Georgia certified by Green Seal, Inc. The ECCH is a member of the International Association of Conference Centers (IACC). The facility is owned by Emory University and managed by Crestline Hotels & Resorts. The hotel is located at 1615 Clifton Road, Atlanta, GA, 30329. For more information or to make reservations visit www.emoryconferencecenter.com or call 404-712-6000/800-933-6679.
